Expected Outcomes: Knowledge of Poultry Science

Students will demonstrate core competency in the key knowledge areas of Poultry Science.

Related typical general education outcomes:

1. Information Literacy
2. Scientific Literacy

Assessment methods

Method: Exit Exam

Each graduating senior was given an Exit Exam. A 70 or higher is expected of each student.

Findings:

All students scored more than 70. Certain topics continue to be difficulty for students.

How did you use findings for improvement?

Faculty will reassess the questions required for this exit exam to insure that key knowledge points are represented appropriately.

Additional comments:

None

Expected Outcomes: Career Placement

All graduates will be prepared to function competently as a BS level professional in the Poultry or related industry.

Related typical general education outcomes:

1. Information Literacy
9. Informed and Engaged Citizenship
11. Scientific Literacy

Assessment methods

Method: Placement Statistics

The department head conducted an exit interview with each graduating senior. Through this process, initial placement of the student was determined and recorded.

Findings:

100% of students who actively sought employment were placed.

How did you use findings for improvement?
Department will continue to garner input from industry stakeholders to ensure that graduates have the needed education, training, and skill set to compete effectively for top jobs in the poultry industry.

Additional comments:

None